

101 Dunkel Street, Suite 110
Fairbanks, AK 99701
(907) 459.3730
AlaskaCenters.gov

Follow us on Facebook!
Facebook.com/AlaskaCentersFairbanks

Think Green! Request an electronic newsletter
Fair_Interpretation@nps.gov

Fairbanks Alaska Public Lands Information Center

August, September & October 2015

Summer Hours 8am–6pm, daily

Morris Thompson Center building is open 8am–9pm, daily

Winter Hours 8am–5pm, Monday-Saturday, beginning Sunday, September 13th

Morris Thompson Center building is open 8am–5pm, daily, beginning September 26th

Located inside the Morris Thompson Cultural & Visitors Center in downtown Fairbanks

101 Dunkel Street, Suite 110
Fairbanks, AK 99701

(907) 459-3730
AlaskaCenters.gov

NPS Photo / Josh Spice
Copper Mountain, Yukon-Charley Rivers National Preserve

EXPLORE ALASKA!

Get outside and explore

Did you do it? Did you check everything off your summer to-do list? Don't fret; there's still time! Visit the Alaska Public Lands Information Center—we want to help you with your summer activities and help you prepare for fall. Not sure what to do? Find ideas in this brochure, with more on our Facebook page: Alaska Centers - Fairbanks.

The Alaska Public Lands Information Center is here to help with all of your trip planning needs. For more information, find us downtown at the Morris Thompson Cultural & Visitors Center at 101 Dunkel Street, by phone, or on the web.

Family-Friendly Outdoor Guide

Float, bike, hike... there's a whole lot of fun to be had with your family in the heart of the Interior.

Grab a free copy of the Family-Friendly Outdoor Recreation Guide and head outside to start exploring everything this land has to offer!

Daily Films

Films are shown 7 days a week* in our 100-seat theater, each ranging from 30-60 minutes

Through September 25th:

9am: Heartbeats of Denali
10am: Arctic Visions & Voices
11am: Aurora: Rivers of Light in the Sky
6pm: Aurora: Rivers of Light in the Sky
7pm: Gates of the Arctic

Beginning September 26th:

9am: Heartbeats of Denali
Noon: Aurora: Rivers of Light in the Sky
2pm: Winter Patrol: Denali by Dogsled
4pm: Aurora: Rivers of Light in the Sky

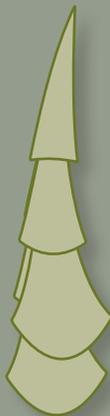

*Film schedule subject to change without notice due to special events

NATIONAL PUBLIC LANDS DAY

Saturday, September 26th

Last year, more than 175,000 volunteers participated at more than 2,200 sites for National Public Lands Day. We raised 100,000 plants; built or maintained 1,500 miles of trails; removed 500 tons of trash; and collected 23,000 pounds of invasive plants.

Find out what you can do for your public lands:
PublicLandsDay.org

FAIRBANKS GO WINTER! EXPO

Saturday, October 10th, 10am – 6pm

Sunday, October 11th, 11am – 5pm

Live a healthy, safe, and sane winter with help from the Alaska Public Lands Information Center. Find us at the Go Winter! Expo and THRIVE this winter!

BEST BEGINNINGS FAMILY HEALTH FAIR

Saturday, September 12th, 11am – 3pm, Free

Kids (ages 0-8) can receive a free health screening, then find ways to spend time outside and have fun with your family in and around Fairbanks. Many vendors will be on hand to share ideas on healthy activities, local resources, and outdoor activities.

First Friday Art Walk

Join us the first Friday of every month from 5–8pm for light refreshments and temporary exhibits that feature the talent of local artists.

Raven Seasons by Amy Reisland-Speer,
Music by Grover Neely
Friday, August 7th, 5 – 8pm

Having been raised in the village of Tanana and resided in Healy for much of her life, Amy Reisland-Speer's work is highly influenced by the Athabascan culture, birds—especially ravens—and the natural environment in which she lives.

Musician Grover Neely will also be present with harmonious instrumentals.

Adventure Photography by Seth Adams
Friday, September 4th, 5 – 8pm

The immensity of Alaska's landscapes fascinate adventurer Seth Adams. Through photographs, he tells the story of the joy he and his partners find in their tiny role in the vast wilderness, showing the harshness, the austerity and the beauty of the Alaskan landscape.

Interior Landscapes by Madara Mason
Friday, October 2nd, 5 – 8pm

With an ever-present interest in new media, new processes and collaborating with other artists, Madara Mason adds a sense of freshness and pizzazz to an already interesting art subject— animals and arctic landscapes. Please join us for Mason's first show of the year —Interior Landscapes.